ORGANISATION
WORKING TO IMPROVE AID
EFFECTIVENESS

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 2003, DARA is an independent organisation committed to improving the quality and effectiveness of aid for vulnerable populations suffering from conflict, disasters and climate change.

OUR BACKGROUND

DARA has carried out evaluations for over 30 different humanitarian agencies and organisations, and in more than 50 countries. We work with our clients to ensure findings have a utilisation focus by providing realistic recommendations to foster learning and positive changes.

We have a proven track record in conducting independent, cutting-edge, innovative evaluations, research and analysis, as well as high-quality influential reports and publications that add value and knowledge to the humanitarian sector. Our flagship reports include The Humanitarian Response Index, The Risk Reduction Index and The Climate Vulnerability Monitor.

OUR SERVICES

We offer expert policy analysis, evaluations and technical assistance in areas such as humanitarian aid, emergency relief and recovery operations, disaster risk reduction and the human impact of climate change, conflict and risk management, as well as cross-cutting issues such as gender.

EVALUATIONS

We specialise in real-time, system-wide, impact, policy, programme and project evaluations.

Major evaluations include the United Nations Inter-Agency Real-Time Evaluation of the Humanitarian Response to the 2010 Pakistan floods, and our work in the Indian Ocean Tsunami Evaluation Coalition (2006).

POLICY ANALYSIS AND STRATEGY REVIEW

We can assist your organisation design and implement comprehensive, forward-looking policy frameworks, strategies and programmes to be better prepared in a changing environment.

An example is the Humanitarian Emergency Response Review (2011) commissioned by the UK Government and directed by DARA's Director General. DARA also reviewed the International Committee of the Red Cross' policy on internally displaced people (2009).

TRAINING AND CAPACITY-BUILDING

We can share our inside knowledge and experience of humanitarian issues through trainings, workshops, and events.

DARA participated in the training for the United Nations Humanitarian and Resident Coordinators: Working with Partners in Humanitarian Contexts (Geneva, 2010).

QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS

DARA's team is composed of highly skilled data analysis experts with capacity for managing large volumes of data. We conduct surveys, develop indicators, econometric and mathematical models, and provide the corresponding analysis.
