HRI 2011: The Humanitarian Response Index

Data Types
- Quantitative Data
- Qualitative Data

Data Sources
- UN OCHA FTS
- OECD.StatExtracts
- UN Treaty Collection
- The World Bank
- Multi-partner trust fund office
- IHL database
- UN annual reports
- ICRC, IFRC
- UNFCC
- World Resources Institute
- ALNAP, Sphere Project, etc.

Data Processing by Type
- Survey Analysis
  - Multiple correlation analysis of field perception scores on donor respect of GHD Principles
  - Identification of response patterns and adjustment for potential biases

- Trend and Correlation Analysis
  - Identification of realistic optimal donor behaviours based on GHD Principles
  - Selection of thresholds and rescaling methods

Data Collection
- 9 Crises visited
- 300 Personal interviews with humanitarian staff
- 40 Meetings with donor representatives
- 1350 Questionnaires* on donor performance

Information Analysis
- Field Perceptions of Donor Respect of GHD Principles

Classification by Group
- 20 Qualitative Indicators
- 15 Quantitative Indicators

Final Key Findings
- In-depth review of field interview comments
- Consolidated analysis of donor performance
- Drafting of preliminary conclusions
- Testing and validation through 40 interviews with senior headquarters staff
- Internal review and quality control by Peer Review Committee

*Visit www.daraint.org for further information on the HRI methodology.